Petersburg, June 10.

H. E. Court has received an Express from Count Munich, which brought Advice, that this Gentleman was actually in march with his Army towards the Dniester, in order to begin the Operations of the Campaign; the Troops being provided with all Necessaries for five Months.

The Cossacks which Count Munich some time since sent to reconnoitre, being return'd, have acquainted him, that they discover'd no Turkish Troops on this Side the Dniester; so that the Report of the Infidels being in Motion to undertake the Siege of Oczakow, appears to have no Foundation. These Dispatches add, that in all Likelihood the Turks design'd to act defensively behind the Dniester, for that their regular Troops in those Parts did not amount to more than 35,000 Men, which were not a Number sufficient to dispute the Passage of the Dniester with the Russians. The last Advices from General Laszy bring, that this General was then 300 Wersts distant from Bachmut, so that it was believed he was long before now arrived in the Crimea.

Letters from Bastia say, that upon the Appearance of an approaching Peace, the People of the Island carry their Vengeance to a Degree of Fury, in hopes of a general Pardon, which has occasioned the Count de Biffieux to publish a vigorous Decree against Murders, recommending it to the Magistrates never to fail punishing that Crime with Death; which will, it's not doubted, be punctually executed, the Islanders shewing a great Readiness to obey whatever his most Christian Majesty pleases to direct; but have so great a Repugnance to return under the Dominion of Genoa, that it's much to be fear'd whether in that Case the Tranquility of the Island would be of any long Continuance.

Edinburgh, June 20. Last Friday came on before the Court of Justiciary the Trial of Thomas Linning prosecuted by his Majesty's Advocate for Accession to the Murder of Captain Porteous, and the Riot which accompanied the same: The Prisoner was at that Time an Apprentice to Colin Alison, Wright, in Edinburgh, and some Days after the Murder, withdrew himself from his Master's Service and left this Country, and was amongst other Persons, to the Number of 22, formerly pursued before the Court of Justiciary by his Majesty's Advocate, and upon the 13th of June last Year, Sentence of Fugitation was pronounced against them for their not appearing to abide their Trial; and in the Month of March last, this Thomas Linning surrendered himself in order to abide his Trial, and to avoid the Penalties of the Act of Parliament, passed in the 10th Year of the King, by which such Persons, against whom Sentence of Fugitation has been pronounced, as should not render themselves within twelve Months from and after the Date of the Sentence, are declared to stand attainted of Felony; and now the said twelve Months are elapsed, and this was the only Person who so surrendered himself.

The Evidence brought against him prov'd his withdrawing and absconding, and two of the Witnesses prov'd his being seen on the Streets the Night of the Riot and Murder, one of them having talk'd with him not far from the Tolbooth Door when it was broke open, and the other saw him standing within a very few Persons of Capt. Porteous himself, at the Place where he was murdered; but both these Witnesses deposed that they saw him have no Weapon in his Hand, nor any ways active in the Proceedings of the Rioters. Many other Witnesses were also examined, who had been upon the Streets, and Spectators of the Actions of the Mob, and being interrogated if they saw the Prisoner there, and if he acted any, or what Part in the Riot or Murder? Deposed in the Negative, most of them adding, that they had never seen him before he appeared upon his Trial. This being the whole Amount of the Pursuer's Evidence, the Council for the Pannel did not think it necessary to call any; upon which the Jury, after withdrawing a little while, returned, and brought in their Verdict unanimously finding him not guilty: Whereupon he was acquitted by the Court, and dismiss'd from the Bar.

The Close of last Week the Hon. Sir James Grant, Member of Parliament for the Shire of Inverness, and Patrick Lindsay, Esq; Member for this City, came to Town from London.

Thursday last Mr. Leckhart of Castlehill, was married to Miss Bogle, Daughter to James Bogle, Esq; the King's Deputy Remembrancer in Exchequer, a young Lady of great Beauty and Merit.

THE History of Popery, by several Gentlemen; being a full and genuine Account, both of the Doctrines and Practice of the Papists, from the Primitive Ages of Christianity, gradually carried on to the End of the Council of Trent. This Work takes in all that is material of what was published in the Reigns of King Charles and King James the Second. Wrote
By HENRY CARR, Gent.

And it is worth Observation, that all the Writers that have appeared in Defence of Popery, not one of them have ventured to reply to this Book any other way than by arraigning and condemning the Author of it, which was done at the King's Bench in the Guildhall of the City of London, by Judge Jefferies. To which are added, many curious Observations vouch'd by unquestionable Authorities, both of Papist and Protestant Writers. The Whole being dispos'd in a regular, concise, and familiar Manner. Adapted for the Entertainment of the more judicious Part of Mankind, and People of a lower Rank and Capacity may theret by be furnished to oppose the artful Sophistry of Priests and Jesuits, which are here trac'd thro' the darkest and most intricate Mazes of that Mystery of Iniquity, and the daring Insolence of the Bishops of Rome, in deposing Emperors and Kings at their Pleasure; with a brief Account of the Lives of all the Popes, the Celibacy of the Clergy, of their Masses, their Councils, Canons, Decrees, Schisms, Saints, Crosses, Crucifixes, Reliques, Images, Pilgrimages, Auricular Confession, Peter-Pence, Indulgencies, Traditions, Rule of Faith, Scriptures, Index, Exurgations, Visible Church, Election of Popes and Cardinals, Kissing the Popes Feet, Pope Joan, Thomas a Burket, Transubstantiation, Purgatory, Curses and Curses on Wick-liffe, Huss, Sir John Oldcastle, Luther, and many Thousands of other faithful Martyrs together with a true Relation of all the other horrible and detestable Idolatries and Cruelties practis'd by the Church of Rome, attempted and carried on in Great Britain and Ireland, as well as in Foreign Countries, are all treated of at large with Copper-Plates.

To which is added,
An Abridgment of the History of the Reformation, and of the Persecution in Queen Mary's Reign, chiefly extracted from Thuanus, Fox, Slaidan, Burnet, Strype, and others. By the Authors of the History of Popery.
Printed for John O'wald, at the Rose and Crown in the Poultry.

The only short and infallible Cure
For that reigning Disease the SCURVY, and all Scorbutick Humours, tho' arriv'd to the highest and most inveterate Degree, or of ever so many Years standing, and that without any sensible Evacuation or the least Purgings, which by an unaccountable Mistake is generally advis'd, although always found rather to increase and confirm the Scurvy than cure it.
By the so much loved and most pleasant Chymical DROPS:

WHICH, without the least Trouble,
Conquerment, or any Disorder whatever, do at once strike at the true Cause of the Scurvy, and entirely destroy it, and all Scorbutick Humours and Effects, Root and Branch, so as never to return again, as many Thousands of both Sexes have experienced, and as all who take them in 3 Days time will be convinc'd; for they almost instantly alter the morbid State of the Juices, purify the Blood, sweeten all the Fluids, cleanse them from Impurities, and directly clear the whole Habit from all Spots, Blisters, black and blue Marks, Itchings, foul Eruptions, or Breakings out, Weariness of the Limbs, languid Heaviness of the whole Body, wandering Pains, Weakness of the Back, and all the vast Variety of Symptoms by which the Scurvy imitates and often lies concealed under the Appearance of the Rheumatism, and many other Distempers.
And for strengthening the Stomach, immediately creating a good Appetite, causing a regular and easy Digestion of Food, and curing all windy Effects and Disorders of the first Passages (whence proceed Head-achs, Vapours and other Indispositions) no Bitters nor any other Medicine upon Earth can compare with them, inasmuch that besides infallibly curing the Scurvy in all its Shapes and Appearances, they also directly and immediately cure the Green-sickness in Virgins, Worms of all Kinds in young or old, and almost all other Chronick Diseases, (which are chiefly occasioned by Indigestion and stultent Crudities in the Stomach and Bowels) and certainly prevent Fevers, Agues, and other acute Illnesses.
They are wonderfully Cordial and Restorative, strengthen and enliven the whole Machine, and as soon as taken, make the Patient pleasantly Lighthearted, brisk and vigorous to admiration, and are good for all Sorts of Persons, to preserve as well as to procure a sound and healthy State of Body.

But the great Reputation these famous find and pleasant Chymical Drops have to universally gain'd among Persons of Eminence, for their suddenly and infallibly curing the Scurvy and all Scorbutick Humours, and other Chronick Diseases, in such an easy and agreeable Manner, have occasioned many to imitate them, some under the same, and others under other Names: Be careful therefore not to be deceiv'd; but be sure to have the Right, which by the Author's special Appointment, are to be had only at the Gentlewoman's, at the Two Blue Posts, in Haydon-Yard, in the Mitre-Row, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.

for the immediate Relief and perfect Cure of the most confirmed ASTHMA of the longest standing:
And of all Sorts of CONSUMPTIONS, even when so far advanced, as not to be cured by any other Medicine in the World.

FOR their Virtues vastly exceed any Thing that ever was published, or even known in the whole World, in the Cure of the worst Asthma's and Consump-tions of all Sorts, Coughs, Colds, Catarrhs, &c.

They instantly relieve the Patient in the most suffocating Fit of an Asthma, and make a perfect Cure in a very short Time; for they gently open the Breast, and immediately give Liberty of Breathing, without danger of taking Cold; they admirably allay the Tickling, which provokes frequent Coughing, and take off the uneasy Sensation of acrimonious Humours, cleanse the small Glands, relax the Fibres, and thereby enlarge the Capacities of the Vessels; thus they regularly and quickly Cure the most obstinate Asthma of the longest standing.

They speedily and to Admiration cure all Sorts of Consump-tions, Ulcers of the Lungs, &c. removing all Obstructions of the Breast, and Lungs, Hoarseness, Wheezing, Soreness, Shortness of Breath, and all the usual Symptoms which attend the Beginnings of a Consumption; and, if taken in time, will infallibly prevent one when fear'd. They are also exceeding na-trative and strengthening to Persons of weakly Constitution, and have no other sensible Operation than as mentioned above.

And by Parity of Reasoning this most excellent Medicine is (and well known to be) the most sovereign Remedy in the World for those troublesome spending Coughs, which many are severely troubled with Night and Morning; and also for the Chin-Cough, and Hooping-Cough in Children, having cured Thousands; is so agreeable, and so few Drops to a Dose, that Children take them with Pleasure, and without any Confinement.

In short, these unparallel'd Chymical Drops are the most infallible Remedy that ever was known (and therefore despite the faint Efforts of all Counterfeiters or Imitators) for the Ailments above-mentioned, and allowed to be so by the most Judicious amongst the Learned in Physick; and confirmed by the largest Experience in private Practice, and are made Publick for Common Good.
